Neighborhood Housing Services Offers FREE Confidential Foreclosure Counseling
Local Counseling Agency offers Certified Housing Counseling to Residents

GRAND HAVEN, MI. The Neighborhood Housing Services offers one on one foreclosure counseling FREE to the public. The agency encourages you to stop living in fear of losing your home and seek out free, confidential, neutral, unbiased information to help you understand your rights and all of your options.

We will help move you out of fear and into a solution.

Neighborhood Housing Services is certified by the State of Michigan as a housing counseling agency and can provide free and confidential assistance to homeowners struggling to make monthly payments or to those facing foreclosure.

We can help you to:

- Help you negotiate with your lender
- Understand all of your options
- Apply for a loan modification
- Find resources on the latest programs available from your lender, and through government agencies
- Create a plan for financial stability for your family
- Create an action plan for your future
- Avoid foreclosure scams

For more information or to schedule an appointment with a Certified Housing Counselor, go to:
<http://www.grandhaven.org/foreclosure>. A counselor will contact you within 2 business days.
